

Bountiful Irrigation District Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form

Information and Instructions

This form was prepared in compliance with the Utah Public Officers' and Employees' Ethics Act, Utah Code Ann. § 67-16-16, which requires "special public officers" to prepare a written conflict of interest disclosure statement ("Statement") and submit it to the filing clerk no sooner than January 1 and no later than January 31 of each year during which the special public officer holds elected or appointed office. No later than ten (10) business days after the day on which a special public officer submits the written Statement described herein to the filing clerk, the filing clerk shall:

- a. post an electronic copy of the written Statement on the special service district's website; and*
- b. provide the Lieutenant Governor of Utah with a link to the electronic posting of the written Statement.*

The filing clerk shall ensure that the special public officer's written Statement remains posted on the on the special service district's website until the special public officer leaves office. The filing clerk shall take action if a special public officer fails to timely submit a written Statement, or the submitted written Statement does not comply with the requirements of Utah Code Ann. § 20A-11-1604(6), within five (5) days after the day on which the filing clerk determines that a violation occurred, notify the special public officer of the violation and direct the special public officer to submit, within seven (7) days, an amended written Statement correcting the problem.

"Special public officers" include members of a board of trustees of a special service district or members of an administrative control board of a special service district. "Filing Clerk" means the special district clerk, for a special public officer who is an office or on the board of trustees or the governing body of a special service district.

Note that it is unlawful for a special public officer to fail to comply with these requirements. Special public officers who fail to comply are guilty of a class B misdemeanor, and the filing clerk is required to report violations to the attorney general. Additionally, the filing clerk must impose a civil fine of $100 against special public officers who violate these requirements. The filing clerk shall deposit any fine collected hereunder into the special service district's general fund as a dedicated credit to pay thee costs of administering these requirements.

For a special public officer who is also a state legislator, a member of a legislative body of a county or municipality, or who is otherwise required to make a written Statement under another provision of law, these provisions generally do not apply, but the filing clerk shall, instead, post an electronic link on the special service district's website the written Statement the special public officer made in the special public officer's capacity, and provide the lieutenant governor with a link to the electronic posting. Also, you must provide a link to the written Statement posted on such relevant agency's website. For more detailed information on these requirements, please refer to Utah Code Ann. § 67-16-16.
